Consignor Handbook

Consignors must read the rules of consigning in the Consignor Handbook - www.stjamesconsignment.com
By delivering tagged items Consignors accept all terms of this Consignor Contract and the Consignor Handbook.

Consignor Check-In

Consignors must book a Check-In slot to drop off tagged items.

Delivered items must be grouped by gender and size.

Consignors must place their tagged items on the salesfloor after quality control review.

Hangers

Use only wire hangers. No plastic hangers. No bent hangers.

Hanger hook must point left.

Pants must be pinned to top of hanger, not folded over.

Complementary wire hangers available in church foyer, while supplies last.

Tags

Only tags with compatible barcode are accepted.

All items must be entered into the tagging system before Sept 5 at 11:59pm.

Consignors must follow Consignor Handbook, section 4: Tagging Instructions.

Quality Control

Only Fall/Winter items accepted.

Items undergo quality control screening during Consignor Check-In. Items may be rejected or flagged.

Removed items may not be returned.

Lost Tags

The Sale will make every effort to reunite missing tags with the respective item. The Sale is not liable for items that are missing a tag. Include a brand name and description on each tag to assist matching lost tags. If an item is missing a tag, consignor may not receive compensation for that item.

Missing Prices

If an item has a tag missing a price, the Sale will price the item to the best of its ability.
